COLLEGE PARK BAPTIST CHURCH

Meditation of Preparation

I want to be in the arena. I want to be brave with my life. And when we make the choice to dare greatly, we sign up to get our asses kicked. We can choose courage or we can choose comfort, but we can't have both. Not at the same time.

Brene Brown

We believe in ordinary acts of bravery, in the courage that drives one person to stand up for another.

Veronica Roth, Divergent

It is not our differences that divide us. It is our inability to recognize, accept, and celebrate those differences.

* Call to Worship

O Lord our God, in the midst of friends and family,
you come as a stranger seeking welcome.
In the midst of the practical and pragmatic matters of our lives,
you come as a dreamer pointing to a greater vision.
In the midst of our questions,
you come as a sure and solid rock,
and in the midst of too-glib answers,
you come as a troubling question.
In the midst of ordinary people in an ordinary town on an ordinary corner,
you come as the holy one.
And in the midst of the pomp and pageantry of the world,
you come as a simple child.
We cannot pin you down, O Lord.
We cannot box you in.
But grant to us the courage and the grace to welcome you as you come in our midst.
Amen.

Scripture Reading

Luke 9.28-36

The Message (MSG)

About eight days after saying this, he climbed the mountain to pray, taking Peter, John, and James along. While he was in prayer, the appearance of his face changed and his clothes became blinding white. At once two men were there talking with him. They turned out to be Moses and Elijah—and what a glorious appearance they made! They talked over his exodus, the one Jesus was about to complete in Jerusalem. Meanwhile, Peter and those with him were slumped over in sleep. When they came to, rubbing their eyes, they saw Jesus in his glory and the two men standing with him. When Moses and Elijah had left, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, this is a great moment! Let’s build three memorials: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” He blurted this out without thinking. While he was babbling on like this, a light-radiant cloud enveloped them. As they found themselves buried in the cloud, they became deeply aware of God. Then there was a voice out of the cloud: “This is my Son, the Chosen! Listen to him.” When the sound of the voice died away, they saw Jesus there alone. They were speechless. And they continued speechless, said not one thing to anyone during those days of what they had seen.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Children's Sermon

Ed Drew

Children ages 3 through 4th grade are invited to come to the front for the children's sermon. Afterwards, children aged 3 may go to the toddlers' room, children ages 4 through 1st grade may leave for children's worship (room 110), 2nd graders & older may return to their seats.

Prayer for the World & Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace; Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it; Trusting that God will make all things right if I surrender to God's will; That I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with God forever in the next. Amen.

Moment of Silence

You gain strength, courage and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to say to yourself, 'I have lived through this horror. I can take the next thing that comes along.' You must do the thing you think you cannot do.

Depart in Peace

I have come to believe over and over again that what is most important to me must be spoken, made verbal and shared, even at the risk of having it bruised or misunderstood.

Jazz: America's Music of Freedom

This spring, in collaboration with the UNCG Miles Davis Jazz Studies Program, we will be offering a monthly recital series called "Jazz: America's Music of Freedom." Jazz originated in African-American communities of New Orleans as both expression and resistance in response to oppression and racism in the late 19th to early 20th century. Concerts will be held in Forest Chapel at 1pm on fourth Saturdays from February through April (2/23, 3/23, 4/27). Join us as we listen to and learn about this great Black American art form!

Movie Night - An Invitation for Food, Film, and Fellowship on March 22

Lexi and John Eagles, Alice Stewart, and Charlie Wilson invite you to a potluck dinner and Movie Night on Friday, November 30, at Alice and Charlie's house. We will be watching First Reformed (brief summary below), a film which was nominated for an Oscar for best screenplay. Alice and Charlie live at 21 Piccadilly Circle (British Woods off Battleground Ave). Come around 6:30 pm and bring a dish to share. On movie nights we enjoy a meal together, watch a film, and then talk about ways it moved and challenged us. RSVP desired but not required. Call Lexi at 336-854-8823 or email her at lexieagles96@gmail.com. All are welcome!

Missions Committee:

We are in need of a few more members to serve on the missions committee. If you are interested in helping to coordinate the missions focus for our church, this is the place for you. Missions committee organizes many of the church's outreaches including the Three Nickels campaign, support for refugee resettlements, serving at GUM, our Angel Tree gifts, and many more. This is usually a 3-year commitment, but if you would like to make a shorter commitment, you would still be very welcome! Please contact Amy Lowrance amylowrance2@gmail.com or Mike Baumann baumann.mike@gmail.com if you would like to serve.

Tai Chi

A good way to keep up your New Year's resolutions is with Tai Chi, which develops focus. As the founder of Golden Flower Tai Chi, Master San Gee Tam, says, "Focus is an important determinant of whether you'll achieve a goal or stick to creating healthy habits. If you can maintain your focus, your mind and spirit will bring a centered power to achieving that goal." Tai Chi at College Park continues in 2019, Thursdays, 6:30 pm in the Chapel. Invite a friend!

Priorities of Our Church

1. We serve our community. We actively work for the benefit of our community; we are known for seeking Greensboro's welfare, both as a congregation and as individuals.
2. We encourage everyone to be connected. We seek connection through small groups that offer opportunities for fellowship, for deeper relationships, and for developing our faith. Because of the growing number of these groups, new members will find ready opportunity for becoming involved and making friends.
3. We sustain the financial health of our congregation. We are mindful of the financial well-being of our congregation; we ensure that the buildings housing our ministries are maintained and preserved, and the programs and staff supporting our ministry are fully funded.
4. We nurture lay involvement and empower leadership. We are purposeful in encouraging members to undertake their individual calls to ministry and in helping them prepare for involvement and leadership.
5. We exist and minister in the name of God in Christ. We are distinctively Christian and seek to follow Jesus as Lord.
