★ Call to Worship

Avery Hiller

In the course of our life-journey, we do not only move from place to place.

We also move from thought to thought, from task to task, from feeling to feeling.

We move between solitude and relationship, between growth and stagnation, between faithfulness and spiritual carelessness.

We are a people in motion.

We are a people of God.

In gathering to worship, we give thanks for our freedom to move. We offer praise to the ever present God, to the living Christ, and to the sustaining Spirit. Wherever we go, we remain in the keeping and the company of God.

New Testament Reading

Genesis 12.1-9 The Message (MSG)
Hannah Brown

God told Abram: “Leave your country, your family, and your father’s home for a land that I will show you. I’ll make you a great nation and bless you. I’ll make you famous; you’ll be a blessing. I’ll bless those who bless you; those who curse you I’ll curse. All the families of the Earth will be blessed through you.” So Abram left just as God said, and Lot left with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran. Abram took his wife Sarai and his nephew Lot with him, along with all the possessions and people they had gotten in Haran, and set out for the land of Canaan and arrived safe and sound. Abram passed through the country as far as Shechem and the Oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites occupied the land. God appeared to Abram and said, “I will give this land to your children.” Abram built an altar at the place God had appeared to him. He moved on from there to the hill country east of Bethel and pitched his tent between Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. He built an altar there and prayed to God. Abram kept moving, steadily making his way south, to the Negev.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Christ Be Our Light

CHRIST BE OUR LIGHT

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

Ronan Martinek-Jenne
written by 11th grade youth

Christ has set us free to live a free life. So take your stand! Never again let anyone put a harness of slavery on you. What happens when we live God’s way? God brings gifts into our lives, much the same way that fruit appears in an orchard—things like affection for others, exuberance about life, serenity. We develop a willingness to stick with things, a sense of compassion in the heart, and a conviction that a basic holiness permeates things and people. We find ourselves involved in loyal commitments, not needing to force our way in life, able to marshal and direct our energies wisely. Among those who belong to Christ, everything connected with getting our own way and mindlessly responding to what everyone else calls necessities is killed off for good—crucified. Gal. 5.1,22-24
