Meditation of Preparation

If there is a hard, high wall and an egg that breaks against it, no matter how right the wall or how wrong the egg, I will stand on the side of the egg. Why? Because each of us is an egg, a unique soul enclosed in a fragile egg. Each of us is confronting a high wall. The high wall is the system which forces us to do the things we would not ordinarily see fit to do as individuals. . . . We are all human beings, individuals, fragile eggs. We have no hope against the wall: it's too high, too dark, too cold. To fight the wall, we must join our souls together for warmth, strength. We must not let the system control us -- create who we are. It is we who created the system.

Haruki Murakami

There are four kinds of people in the world, Ms. Harper. Those who build walls. Those who protect walls. Those who breach walls. And those who tear down walls. Much of life is discovering who you are. When you find out, you also realize there are places you can no longer go, things you can no longer do, words you can no longer say.

Call to Worship

We have sensed God's presence throughout the past week. Now we gather to worship.
We saw God whenever our vision looked beyond the cloudiness of fears to the bright clarity of hope.
We tasted God whenever we savored the scriptures or let the ways of Christ flavor our actions.
We heard God whenever we were deaf to unkindness but alert for words of love and understanding.
We smelled God whenever we breathed in the freshness of the morning and felt gratitude fill our hearts as clean air filled our lungs.
We touched God whenever we extended or received a helping hand.
God is with us always in Spirit and in truth – there to be sensed and known. With thanks for God's presence, we come together this morning to worship.

★ Prayer of Thanksgiving

★ Response Praise, Praise, Praise the Lord

Each line to be sung as a call and response:
Leaders sing first, then entire congregation repeats

Praise, praise, praise the Lord! Praise God's ho - ly name. Al - le - lu - ia!
Lou - ez le Sei - gneur! Lou - ez son saint nom. Al - le - lu - ia!

Praise God's ho - ly name. Al - le - lu - ia! Praise God's ho - ly name. Al - le - lu - ia!
Lou - ez son saint nom. Al - le - lu - ia! Lou - ez son saint nom. Al - le - lu - ia!

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

New Testament Bible Reading

Ephesians 2.13-22 The Message (MSG)

But don't take any of this for granted. It was only yesterday that you outsiders to God's ways had no idea of any of this, didn't know the first thing about the way God works, hadn't the faintest idea of Christ. You knew nothing of that rich history of God's covenants and promises in Israel, hadn't a clue about what God was doing in the world at large. Now because of Christ—dying that death, shedding that blood—you who were once out of it altogether are in on everything. The Messiah has made things up between us so that we're now together on this, both non-Jewish outsiders and Jewish insiders. He tore down the wall we used to keep each other at a distance. He repealed the law code that had become so clogged with fine print and footnotes that it hindered more than it helped. Then he started over. Instead of continuing with two groups of people separated by centuries of animosity and suspicion, he created a new kind of human being, a fresh start for everybody. Christ brought us together through his death on the cross. The Cross got us to embrace, and that was the end of the hostility. Christ came and preached peace to you outsiders and peace to us insiders. He treated us as equals, and so made us equals. Through him we both share the same Spirit and have equal access to the Father. That's plain enough, isn't it? You're no longer wandering exiles. This kingdom of faith is now your home country. You're no longer strangers or outsiders. You belong here, with as much right to the name Christian as anyone. God is building a home. He's using us all—irrespective of how we got here—in what he is building. He used the apostles and prophets for the foundation. Now he's using you, fitting you in brick by brick, stone by stone, with Christ Jesus as the cornerstone that holds all the parts together. We see it taking shape day after day—a holy temple built by God, all of us built into it, a temple in which God is quite at home.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

★ Response Go With Us, Lord

With energy and enthusiasm!

Text: Mary Jackson Cathey
Music: Thomas Tallis

Go with us, Lord, and guide the way through this and ev - ery com - ing day, that in your Spir - it strong and true our lives may be our gift to you.

Depart in Peace

“Is that it?”

“No. That’s a wall.”

“It could be disguised.”

“You’re not very good at looking for things, are you?”

“I’m good at looking for walls. Look, I found another one.”

Frank Dew

Frank was born in Raleigh but grew up in Lumberton. He attended Wake Forest for college and Duke for graduate school. Before retiring three years ago, he was the minister of New Creation Community Presbyterian Church - an alternative church model based on Church of the Savior in Washington, DC. At the time of retirement, he was working for New Creation as well as serving as the head chaplain at Greensboro Urban Ministry where he trained chaplains from Duke and Wake Forest Divinity schools. He also was the chaplain for Habitat and taught courses on urban ministry at Wake Forest Divinity School. Since retirement, he is the Peace and Justice Advocate staff member for Salem Presbytery and continues serving as chaplain for Habitat for Humanity of Greater Greensboro and serving on national hunger committees for the Presbyterian Church. He also continues to teach courses occasionally at Wake Forest Divinity School and currently, at Church of the Savior in Washington, DC.

Help! Sunday School Supplies

Is shopping your spiritual gift? The kids at College Park could use your help! Our kids' classes are growing and could use a few supplies for their classrooms and for the Blessings Box the older kids stock every week. Please put any of these supplies into a Blessings Box container or give them to Lauren Grubbs; THANK YOU for your love and support!

For the kids' classrooms: gently used puzzles of all levels, hand sanitizer, Clorox wipes, latex gloves for diaper changing, diaper wipes, glue sticks. We are also working on decorating a new room; retired teachers, if you have "teacher stuff" like bulletin board supplies, a classroom rug, manipulatives, etc, we may be able to use them--see Lauren Grubbs if you think you have things we could use!

For the Blessings Box: granola bars, ramen noodles, Chap Stick, packaged crackers or individual-sized bags of peanuts, and Ensure drinks.

Bread for the World

There will be a Bread for the World gathering and workshop Monday, October 14 at St. James Presbyterian Church, 820 Ross Avenue in Greensboro. We will focus on learning how to make an offering of letters around public policy issues affecting hungry people. Please come and join us!

Mind My Health is an online platform allowing users to “own their health” and easily connect and communicate advance care plans to friends, family and health providers. This project began in 2015 at the Carolinas Center for Hospice and End of Life Care (TCC), a not-for-profit association across the Carolinas. We know firsthand about the benefits of Advance Care Planning (ACP) and how they bring peace and comfort to individuals and families. Mind My Health allows users to securely upload an advance care planning document and share it with loved ones and chosen decision makers.

Those interested should be comfortable with the interview being filmed and publicly accessible.

Movie Night Returns! An Invitation for Food, Film, and Fellowship on October 25

Lexi and John Eagles, Alice Stewart, and Charlie Wilson invite you to a potluck supper and Movie Night on Friday, October 25, at Alice and Charlie's house. We will be watching Mao's Last Dancer (brief summary below). Alice and Charlie live at 21 Piccadilly Circle (British Woods off Battleground Ave). Come around 6:30 pm and bring a dish to share. On movie nights we enjoy a meal together, watch a film, and then talk about ways it moved and challenged us. RSVP desired but not required. Call Lexi at 336-314-8295 or email her at lexieagles96@gmail.com. All are welcome – bring a friend!

Mao's Last Dancer is a 2009 Australian film based on professional dancer Li Cunxin's autobiography of the same name. The film chronicles the journey of Li and the struggle for his artistic soul from the day when, as an 11-year-old boy, he is plucked from a remote provincial town and sent to train in Beijing. Everything he knows is challenged when he is chosen to attend a ballet summer program in Houston, Texas. The film won the Audience Award at the 2009 Sao Paulo International Film Festival, and six awards from the 2009 Australian Film Institute.

Priorities of Our Church

1. We serve our community. We actively work for the benefit of our community; we are known for seeking Greensboro's welfare, both as a congregation and as individuals.
2. We encourage everyone to be connected. We seek connection through small groups that offer opportunities for fellowship, for deeper relationships, and for developing our faith. Because of the growing number of these groups, new members will find ready opportunity for becoming involved and making friends.
3. We sustain the financial health of our congregation. We are mindful of the financial well-being of our congregation; we ensure that the buildings housing our ministries are maintained and preserved, and the programs and staff supporting our ministry are fully funded.
4. We nurture lay involvement and empower leadership. We are purposeful in encouraging members to undertake their individual calls to ministry and in helping them prepare for involvement and leadership.
5. We exist and minister in the name of God in Christ. We are distinctively Christian and seek to follow Jesus as Lord.
